Refer to the sermon outline when considering these questions.

“The wine runs out.” Share a point in your life when you felt that the wine (your ability to celebrate life) had run out. Did you go to Jesus? Whether you did or didn’t, how did your loss of joy play out?

“Abundant Life.” Some of you volunteer to share how abundant life manifests itself in your life. What kinds of abundance have you experienced?

“The best always comes at the end.” If Jesus always saves the best for last, what should that tell us about our relationship with him? What according to your own thinking, does God’s best look like to you?

“Jesus loves transforming things.” That is what redemption is all about, allowing Jesus to take us in our broken and wretched state, and creating a wonderful testimony to God’s glory, grace, kindness, love and faithfulness. Vessels that are filled to the brim with ordinary water, under Jesus’ hands become a delightful source of joy, abundance and blessing. How can you ensure that you are passing beneath the hands of Jesus? Pray as a group and choose an individual point of application. Promise one another to pray for and help each other to follow through this week.
